Follow-up from morning Bureau of Election Presentation on Proposal 3

Adjournment

NOTE: The Bureau of Elections will be holding a townhall style meeting on the morning of Friday, April 12th, to go over the new voter registration procedures resulting from Proposal 3. The meeting will take place at the Ottawa County Fillmore Complex. Jurisdictions with May elections will be given priority for attendance, and others will be able to sign up if there are spaces left. Watch for more information to come out next week from the Bureau of Elections and the West Michigan Regional Clerks Assn about this meeting.
